1 (d) CENTRAL ASIAN REGIONAL CONNECTIVITY
2 STRATEGY.—Not later than June 1, 2026, the Secretary
3 of State, in consultation with the heads of the Federal de-
4 partments and agencies listed in or determined relevant
5 pursuant to subsection (b), shall submit to the appropriate 6 congressional committees a report that contains a 10-year
7 strategy to enhance regional connectivity in Central Asia
8 to strengthen United States relationships with Central 9 Asian partners, create market opportunities for United 10 States businesses, reduce dependence on trade links
11 through Russia, and counter malign PRC influence in the 12 region. The elements of this strategy shall include the fol-
13 lowing:

- 14 (1) Objectives and metrics of success for United 15 States efforts to support regional connectivity.
- 16 (2) An assessment of the different lines of ef-
17 fort needed to achieve regional connectivity, includ-

1 ing through roads, railways, shipping lanes, ports,
2 and digital infrastructure.

3 (3) A list detailing the specific infrastructure
4 projects under each line of effort.

5 (4) Planned United States financial and tech-
6 nical support for each line of effort.

7 (5) Objectives for contributions and technical 8 support for each such line of effort from the host
9 country, and if applicable, contributions from other 10 partner countries.

11 (6) Identification of relevant market opportuni-
12 ties for United States companies.

13 (7) Identification of challenges and barriers to 14 implementation and corresponding action plans to 15 address them.
